Student Comments:

- I learned so much about live performance, projection mapping, and TouchDesigner.
- This course was great it was very hands on and I was able to learn a whole new skill set from this class.
- Having not touched or even heard of TouchDesigner, this class helped me to learn the basics and covered a wide variety of different areas that TouchDesigner can cover.
- This was the best class of the semester because it helped me gain not only skills in TouchDesigner, but also knowledge and experience in media art.
- As a beginner, this was a great pace for me to learn and develop from what I have understood
- This course helped me grow tremendously from where I started at the beginning of the semester. The instruction was engaging, supportive, and truly made a difference in how I learn and apply these skills.

Student Comments:

- You practically worked magic on my TouchDesigner file when stuff was broken.
- Whenever I was struggling with an assignment I always got feedback saying what problems I was running into and how I could fix it.
- Bruner always provides clear, thoughtful feedback on my work. It helps me understand my progress and how to improve, and it shows how invested he is in his students' learning.

Student Comments:

- Yay!!!
- I want to thank Michael for your guidance and support throughout this TouchDesigner class. I truly appreciate how you helped me develop my ideas and have a learning environment, such as live performance and igloo lab.
- Bruner fosters an incredibly positive and effective learning environment. He is knowledgeable, reliable, and truly supportive of his students. I feel encouraged to think big and take creative risks because of the way he teaches and because I know he has my back. I really appreciate how much he trusts us with real applications of the material, and how he creates a classroom environment where everyone feels supported and connected.

Student Comments:

- This course is a lot of little assignments that help you get used to the software so you can understand what your doing before you move onto a project. I liked this method a lot because it helped me understand the program better so I wasn't completely lost the whole time.
- This class and Bruner motivate me to start projects early and stay on track with deadlines. Through his feedback, I have learned how valuable early progress can be, and it pushes me to take my work seriously and put real effort and pride into what I create.
